WILLIAM LESLIE

MAUA BANK,

CALLE CANGALLO, Nos 101—103

The Offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank:—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing, endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations.

Fourth—Money is received in account current, bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of cheques, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency, in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta. Fé, Salto Oriental, Paysandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brazils, England and France, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter.

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 9 a.m. till 4 p.m.

GEORGE WILKS,
7 Calle Mayo.

Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum), ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, showing £'00.000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 95 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1864 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to $846,070 is real and substantial property; " the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1330 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £300,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

New Work on the Argentine Republic.

In the Press and will shortly be Published, in one volume, crown octavo, with Maps, Illustrations, Appendixes, and Statistical Tables,

BUENOS AYRES, AND ARGENTINE GLEANINGS,

With Extracts from Diary of Salado Exploration, 1862 and 1863

By THOMAS J. HUTCHINSON, F.R.G.S., &c. &c., H.B.M. Consul for Rosario;

Author of "Niger-Tshadda-Binue Exploration;" "Impressions of Western Africa;" "Ten Years' Wanderings amongst the Ethiopians," &c. &c.

London: Edward Stanford, 6 Charing Cross, S.W., Ordnance Publisher, Geographical Establishment, and London School Library;

And at the "Standard" Office, Buenos Ayres, where orders for the Work will be received.

This Work is to be illustrated with three Maps, one of them being Dr. Burmeister's Chart of the Argentine Republic, on which the author's journeying is traced by John Coghlan, Esq., C.E. It has besides a number of pictorial illustrations statistical tables of the commerce of Buenos Ayres and Rosario from A.D. 1854 to A.D. 1863—records of the progress and present condition of education in Buenos Ayres—topographical descriptions of our principal public buildings—synopsis of Land Laws in Buenos Ayres as well as in Santa Fe—tables of cost and profit in sheep farming—tables of commerce between Rosario and the interior provinces—sketches of the habits and peculiarities of the Gauchos—illustrations of life in the upper provinces—historical, ethnological, and geographical episodes of the Salado Valley, the Grand Chaco, the provinces of Santa Fe, Santiago del Estero, Tucuman, and Cordova—description of Matadero and Saladero performances—with an account of the progress of Cotton cultivation, colonization, immigration, railways, and river navigation.

La Zingara and Istria.

All Parties indebted for passage money to the above-mentioned ships are requested to call at my Office and pay their passage, within two months from this, otherwise a special order will be given by Government to the different Justices of Peace to remit into Buenos Ayres all defaulters.

General Agency and Commission House

WILD & PERKINS,

Rosario de S. Fé, Cordoba St. 87 & 89.

For the purchase and sale of land in this as well as other provinces; property of every description, domestic produce such as cattle, sheep, hides, wool, grains, metals &c; consignments of produce as well as merchandize to the Interior attended to, despatch of vessels, collections and representations in commercial affairs, &c.

The want of a Land and cattle Agency in Rosario to facilitate the sale or lease of landed property, the examination and arrangement of titles, &c. has been very prejudicial to the interests of new-comers, and has prevented many from purchasing in this Province.

The undersigned will give especial attention to this important branch of their business, and their experience in this as well as other countries inspires them with confidence that, in land transactions as well as other commission business with which they may be favored, they will give entire satisfaction,

CICERO.

SAURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1864.

NEWS FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE SAINTONGE.

ITALY.

A convention has been held between France and Italy which may be considered the first step towards the solution of the vexed Roman question, as it treats of the evacuation of Rome by the French troops. Though it has not yet been published, still there remains no doubt, when we remember the interview held between Napoleon, General Menabrea, Marquis Pepoli, and others. The Capital of Italy will be transferred to Florence. The French troops will retire from Rome within two years, may be less, but not more. Italy binds itself to protect the Pontifical territory. Italy to take four-fifths of the Roman debt. The Roman army to consist of a number of Catholic volunteers, sufficient to preserve the authority of the Pope, and the tranquillity, both interior and exterior, of his States.

In Turin a manifestation had been made against the Ministry, the transference of the capital being very badly received there. The military had to restore order, but not until after many of the populace were killed and others wounded.

The French press looks upon the arrangements as likely to effect both the temporal security of the Pope and his reconciliation with Victor Emanuel.

The Provincial Deputation of Turin had resolved to sustain the vote of the 20th of March last, which proclaimed Rome the capital of Italy. Great agitation prevails in Milan, as also in Messina, Reggio, and in Calabria.

ENGLAND.

Nothing politically new. Lord Palmerston continues to assist at banquets throughout the country, and to deliver speeches. Robert Bunch, who formerly officiated in the same capacity in Charleston, has been nominated English Consul at Rio.

FRANCE.

Still they continue to speak of reforms, but without anything being yet realized. Marshal MacMahon departed for Algiers on the 21st ult., in order to effect the restoration of order. The Government forces have great difficulty in bringing the rebels to terms. Further troops had been earnestly solicited to be despatched to Algiers with all haste.

The Government did not consent to ratify the treaty of peace drawn up by the Emperor of Anam (who wishes to get possession of lower Cochin China), on account of Napoleon considering it would be advantageous to the interests of France to have a colony in that part of the world.

The Empress Eugenie continued to remain at the baths of Schwallbach, where she had a visit from the King of Prussia. She also expected to receive visits from the Emperor and Empress of Russia. It is said that the Emperor Napoleon, desirous of meeting the Emperor Alexander, will also proceed thither at the proper time.

GERMANY.

The conferences at Vienna have closed. It is difficult in the midst of such diplomatic embarrassments to define the true cause of delay in concluding the peace. Notwithstanding all the protestations of Austria and Prussia they are still far from coming to terms. Both wish to obtain the supremacy in Germany, and the interests of both make it impossible that they can agree.

The Danish Plenipotentiaries in Vienna have shown great energy in defending their country at every risk. Neither the territorial nor the financial questions had, at the latest dates, been resolved. With regard to the first—the territorial question—the allies hold that the whole of Schleswig ought to be separated from the Monarchy, at the same time that Northern Schleswig dictated a note to King Christian entreating him not to deliver it up to Germany.

With regard to the second question: Prussia and Austria desired that the Danish Government should not only pay a part of the expenses of the war, but, moreover, that the liabilities of the Danish Monarchy should be divided between these and the Duchies. To that the Danish Plenipotentiaries strongly objected, saying that it was an absurd and entirely new pretension, not being in accordance with the preliminaries of peace. All these difficulties continue, without anything conclusive having been come to. The Conference still continues, however.

Some attributed the delay to Denmark; on account of her still holding the hope of being yet able to renew the war, being assisted by the Western powers and by Russia. Others pretended that Austria was the cause of the delay—that not being able to obtain any concession from Russia in the question of the union of the custom houses, she raised doubts which may have the effect of leaving the Danish question unsettled; others again lay all the cause of the procrastination to the plotting of Prussia, which still holds the Danish territory, and thinks in time to legalize her possession of it. At the same time in the Dutchies the principle of universal suffrage received the attention of the legislature. It is said that the idea was excited by England and France.

Russia protects every time more and more the cause of Denmark, with the realization of a Scandinavian union.

The proposed marriage of the Princess Dagmar, with the heir to the throne of Russia, is confirmed. Reference is also made to the marriage which is in prospect of being celebrated between King George of Greece, with a Grand Duchess, daughter of the Emperor Alexander. These alliances between Russia and Denmark, strengthened the opinion that the Danish question was about to be settled, the arrangement being to place the Grand Duke of Oldenburg on the Danish throne, who pretends to have a right to the sovereignty of the Duchies, and to the Danish crown as well. This arrangement, it is said, meets the approval of England and France. The Duchies will remain united to the Monarchy.

Francis Joseph had not arrived in Berlin as had been announced. In this we see a proof of the little sympathy that exists between the two nations.

SPAIN.

Madrid papers date to the 25th ult. On the 13th the Ministry of Mon being in a difficulty, on account of its resistance to the return of Queen Christina, and on account of its persecution of the press, &c., gave in its resignation. Queen Isabella, after holding a conference with Mon, called General O'Donnell, but he did not accept the conditions accorded to the new Administration, and instead, recommended her Majesty to call the Duke of Valencia.

The Duke of Narvaez was called to the Court immediately, and the decrees, naming the new Administration, were published in the papers of the 17th. The Ministry consists of President of the Council, Duke of Valencia; Minister of Foreign Affairs, Sr. Lorenzano; Minister of Justice, Sr. Arrazola; Minister of Interior, Sr. Bravo; Minister of War, General Cordoba; Minister of Finance, Sr. Barzanalla, and Minister of Public Works, Sr. Galeano.

'La España,' 'El Contemporaneo,' 'La Politica' and other organs have applauded the entrance of the new ministry as the precursor of progress and liberty; while other papers state that it means only reaction and corruption.

The 'Gazette' of the 15th publishes a decree dissolving the Chamber of Deputies, and convoking another for the 22nd of December.

MEXICO.

The Emperor Maximilian continued to visit the provinces, and was very well received in all parts, and Sor. Paez, secretary to Juarez, had recognized the empire. It was also said that no time would be lost in establishing diplomatic relations with Brazil.

Dates from Paris by way of New York to 16th ult., state that Juarez had to abandon Monte Rey and take refuge in Chihualma.

LATEST ITEMS.

Holland.—The States General were opened on the 19 ult.

Batavia.—A conspiracy against the authorities has been brought to light. The ringleaders have been caught.

Greece.— The new Constitution was under discussion. The entrance of the Ionian deputies has given a mortal blow to anarchy. England has been the cause of the re-union of these islands with the Kingdom.

Turkey.—On the 6th ult., a convention was held between the Porte and the Representatives of the five great Powers, having for consideration the modifications to be accorded to the administraiion of the Lebanon. The difference that existed between the Government and the Suez Canal Co. has been now arranged on the terms presented by Napoleon III.

China.—The Imperialists have taken Nankin. The Taepings losing very many in killed and wounded in their struggle to keep possession of the city.

UNITED STATES.

GREAT TRIUMPH OF THE FEDERALS.

We have news from the United States up to the 10th of September.

The city of Atlanta has at last been taken by the Federals. The Southerners had suffered a defeat at Jonesboro. Sherman took ten pieces of artillery and 1,500 prisoners. The Southern General Flood perceiving he was cut off, immediately evacuated Atlanta, first blowing up all the military stores, etc. Sherman pursued the Southerners over 30 miles south of Atlanta, but finding the enemy very strongly posted, returned to Atlanta.

The Southerners seem to make nothing of the loss of Atlanta, but the Northerners are in the greatest joy, and President Lincoln ordered a general thanksgiving.

Admiral Farragut is preparing to attack Mobile. The whole Northern fleet has moved up to a position which commands the city, and it was rumored that the place had surrendered after a slight bombardment.

Lee has been reinforced by Early, who was still in the valley of Shenandoah. A battle at Petersburg was imminent.

General McClellan has been elected by the Chicago Convention as candidate for President, who has accepted the nomination, and stated that his programme will be "the Union as it was, at any cost."

There is a general feeling throughout the country for peace, but the Union is the sole condition.

It is said that both Lincoln and Fremont are also candidates for the Presidency (latest telegram).

GREAT NEWS FROM BRAZIL.

MR. WELLS' BALLOON ASCENT.

On the 15th instant took place the solemn marriage of the Princess Isabella with M. le Comte D'Eu. The bridal procession left San Cristobal Palace at nine in the morning, passing Rocio and Rua Direita to the city palace. The crowds attending the procession were extraordinary, and all the windows beautifully decorated by the ladies along the route. In the square fronting the palace the National Guards, cavalry, infantry, and artillery, were drawn up, along with the 1st Battalion of Fusiliers. The saloons of the palace were thronged with ladies and gentlemen, in a greater number than ever before seen. Councillor Barbosa da Silva acted as Master of Ceremonies, assisted by D. Leopold Augusto Lima, who received the Corps Diplomatique; Jose Diaz Lima, who received the Court; D. Antonio Pinheiro, who received the Corps Legislatif; D. Pamplona Real, who received the ladies.

At 10.30 the cortege arrived, and was received at the foot of the staircase. After a few minutes the whole assembly set out for the Imperial chapel. The gentlemen-in-waiting, Messrs. Bahia, Cuelho and Madureira carried on three cushions, the contract of the marriage, the grand crosses of the Imperial orders, and the list of questions and answers to be given to the august couple.

Her Imperial Highness Princess Isabel wore a white silk dress with two flounces of Brussels lace, a wreath of orange blossoms on her brow, and rosettes of the same on her skirts. Her bracelet was of pearls and brilliants, the gift of the ladies of Sergipe, and she also wore the grand-cross of the Cruzeiro of Brazil.

His Royal Highness, Count D'Eu wore the uniform of a field-marshal, with the grand cross of Cruzeiro, a Spanish military decoration, the order of Saxe, and the medal of the Moorish campaign.

The sponsors were: for the Princess—Senator Furtado, president of the Privy Council, and the Marquis Itanhaem. For the Count, the Duke of Saxe, and Marquis of Olinda. The Archbishop of Bahia officiated and went through the usual ceremony.

The Princess said: I, Isabel, Christina, Leopoldina, Augusta, Michaela, Raphaela, Gonzaga, Princess Imperial of Brazil, take you Louis, Philip, Mary, Ferdinand, Gaston of Orleans; Count of Eu, for my lawful husband, according to the rites of our holy mother, the Roman church.

The Count said: J. Louis, Philip, Marie, Ferdinand, Gaston of Orleans, count of Eu, take you Isabel &c. princess imperial of Brazil for my lawful wife according to the rites of our holy mother the Roman Church.

The ceremony being over, the archbishop entoned a Te Deum, the Emperor at the same time investing the Count with the collar of the order of the Rose. After a prayer of thanksgiving the royal couple and cortege returned to the audience-chamber of the Palace. From the balconies of the throne-room, their Imperial Majesties and Royal Highnesses passed the troops in review.

The Emperor, taking his seat on the throne, surrounded by the Princes and Princesses, received the corps diplomatique, on whose part the Papal Nuncio pronounced a congratulatory address. Next came the other public bodies of State, who simply handed their addresses to the Minister, and took their congé. The audience lasted an hour and a half. Afterwards, the ladies of the Foreign Ministers were received.

At 2 p.m. the Court withdrew for luncheon, a number of illustrious guests being honored with invitations. The Emperor presented the Archbishop with a splendid gold snuff-box set in diamonds, with the Imperial crest and monogram. To celebrate the happy occasion, his Majesty liberated all the slaves of the Princess's household.

At 3 p.m. the bridal party left the palace, to embark at the Arsenal, on board the Imperial yacht, for Petropolis, where they will fix their residence: they were attended by the Baron and Baroness de Lages and arrived at Petropolis at 6.30. The Emperor, empress and suite returned to San Cristobal.

By decree of same day, his Majesty created the Count D'Eu a field-marshal of the Empire.

At 11 a.m. when the marriage ceremony began, Mr. Wells ascended from Campo Sant Anna in his balloon "Princess Isabel and Count D'Eu," the Brazilian and American flags being attached to his car. The cheers and shouts of the multitude burst forth as he slowly mounted into the air. Having risen to a height of two miles he descended softly and soundly at the Morro Viuva at 12 o'clock. Mr. Wells will make a second ascent on the 24th.

The whole city of Rio was illuminated at night, with brilliant gas-designs of great taste and effect.—Diario de Rio.

THE CAPTURE OF THE FLORIDA.

The Imperial Government has summoned the naval commander at Bahia, and officers of the D. Januaria, to attend a court of investigation at Rio respecting the seizure of the Florida. A decree is also published, prohibiting the entrance of the Wassuchett into any Brazilian port. It is said that the American Minister, General Webb, has offered explanations to the Government, declaring the friendly sentiments of the United States, and disavowing all connection with the outrage.

The origin of the affair seems to be, that the New York underwriters had offered a reward of $500,000, and the Cabinet of Washington a like sum, for the seizure or destruction of the Confederate privateer Florida. The report being spread that she was about to be sold in Bahia, the American Consul, Mr. Wilson, and the captain of the Wassuchett determined not to let slip such a prize at any cost.

Although most of the treasure of the Florida was deposited in the London and Brazilian Bank, there was a sum of $20,000 on board, and all the correspondence. The officers on board the privateer when attacked were Lieuts. Porter, Stone, and Floyd; Quartermasters Bryan and Hunter; Surgeon Charlton, Assistant do. Emory; Chief Engineer Thompson, Assistant do. Ahern and Brown; Officer of Marines Sinclair. Of these, Stone, Hunter, Charlton, Thompson and Sinclair were killed in the affray, as also Lieut. Walter Delany, a Northern officer, captured by the Florida, who was killed by a shot from the Wassuchett.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The "Pueblo" makes a sharp allusion to the official paper "Nacion Argentina," which fills its columns with eloquent articles about the Montevidean Government, Admiral Tamandaré's circular, and the condition of Paraguay, but has nothing to say of the weekly robberies by Indians in Cordoba. It is time for Argentines to mind their own business, and let their neighbors alone: what a moral contained in the words "Latest from Paraguay—telegraph wires." "Latest from Rosario: another Indian invasion."

Of the twelve criminals escaped from prison last Sunday, it is now known that Coriolano Marquez and Delfin Rodriguez arrived in Montevideo next day by a whaleboat: two others have been re-captured, and the remaining eight are probably in town. It is hardly probable that the Oriental Government will deliver up the two murderers above named.

Robberies in town are on the increase. The fellows who robbed M. Grouteau's jewellery-shop are not yet discovered. On Wednesday night another jeweller, living in Calle Piedras, was almost victimized: he is also a Frenchman, and (says the Progrés) only a short time arrived in the country. He luckily heard the robbers trying to effect an entrance, and on his approach they fled, leaving behind a turn-screw, employed in their manipulations.

We regret to state that since the two hundred dollars from a friend, we have received no further contributions for the distressed English widow, Mrs. Zambianchi, but we believe one of her sons has been taken into an office in town.

The merchants have subscribed most munificently for the British Library, which will now be freed from its hereditary embarrassed condition, and placed on a most efficacious footing.

It is stated that the Buey traction-engine will be placed on the route from Concordia to Federacion, pending the construction of the Eastern Argentine Central Railway. The French paper says that it cannot travel over three miles a day, but Mr. Bearde has a very different idea. Nous verrons.

The malon of Indians at Las Tunas, in which our troops could not face the savages owing to the badness of the horses, is the third invasion we have reported in one week. In that of Paso Algarrobo (Cordoba) they carried off a woman and child, with seven hundred dollars: and in the second at Desabridas they took one thousand silver dollars, and in the third they carried off a considerable booty of cattle.

Our Argentine colleagues are very properly making a noise about the Bishop having permitted a picture by Murillo to be taken out of the Cathedral to be painted over again, or re-touched! Such treatment of old Masters is unknown in Europe, and we all remember the Frenchman who got a valuable picture out of the same church to be copied, and substituted his copy for the original!!

We observe a very notable improvement in Governor Saavedra's administration since the termination of the election fever. Few Governments have devoted such incessant attention towards building schools, churches, &c., in the camp districts, and at the same time the Provincial Treasury is in a cheering state. The Western Railway will soon be completed to Mercedes, and the new camp-gendarmerie promises to add to the security of life and property.

On Wednesday we printed 1,700 copies of our paper, yet such has been the demand for this packet, that we came short yesterday. Except the 'Tribuna' and 'Nacion Argentina,' none of our colleagues threw off so flattering a figure.

The 'Circulo Literario' announces another Conference for next Monday evening, which promises to be interesting, as Dr. Rawson, Sr. Trelles, and Mr. Larsen will read papers on divers matters of import.

The National Public Bonds are going down faster than the paper money. In two months they have fallen from 47 to 38, or about 20 per cent. At their present value they give 15¾ per cent. interest per annum.

The brokers' horses being found a nuisance in front of the Bolsa, several gentlemen now leave their quadrupeds at the coach-yard formerly belonging to Sauze (79 San Martin), the owner of which establishment has connected his name with the notorious Hesperidina.

Several parties are anxious to know what about the redemption of paper money? The Chambers have got through the projects, but the depreciated dollar is just where it was, or rather lower than before. If the physicians are unable to cure the patient, they may as well let him alone. Why not get up a scheme for improving Bolivian silver or the currency of Paraguay, by way of pastime?

The gold mines of San Juan are not mentioned by our colleagues, although a general subject of conversation. We have a private letter giving the most fabulous accounts of nuggets and auriferous rock, and before long the affair will cause a regular fever. This is no dodge, like the gold dust of Fray Bentos, or the gold-cliffs of Patagonia told by the 'Pueblo.'

It is whispered that this packet brings Mr. Thornton important instructions from England, touching the difficulty at Montevideo. Some say that our Minister told the Brazilian Admiral that if he did not act quickly, the British Government might enter a caveat.

The Corrientes will take a supplemental mail this evening for the Mersey, which will leave Montevideo at noon on Sunday.

The Senate has at last passed the paper-dollar project, and it remains only to receive the sanction of Governor Saavedra to become a law. It is positively stated that when the law is published the bank will burn 24 millions paper money.

The pampero on Thursday night luckily caused no damage whatever in port. Two or three lighters had a very narrow escape.

It is stated that some wool buyers for the French market arrived yesterday in the Saintonge. Wool in England is reported at the same rates, with a slight tendency in favour of sellers.

The arrival of the French packet brings us abundance of news from Europe. We have also translated from the Brazilian papers some interesting items. Our space will not permit further comments, but we refer our readers to the other columns. No room for Montevidean news.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND CONSUL PARISH.

The British residents of Buenos Ayres were disagreeably surprised by the news arrived yesterday of an order from the Foreign-office for Mr. Parish's removal from this city to the post of Consul-General for the island of Cuba.

At first sight it appears a promotion, and the high regard and esteem so justly entertained for our worthy consul would make us gladly welcome his advancement, or any mark of appreciation rendered him by the British Government. But the intended change is not really of such a character, and if carried out must prove a loss to all parties.

Mr. Parish has been so long resident in this country that his relations are intimately connected with the British public here, and the removal would be a virtual banishment. Moreover his health would suffer seriously, as his constitution is not over robust, and being acclimated to a temperate atmosphere, he is little calculated to resist the heats of Havanna. The slight difference of salary and position would be no compensation, as the Consulate of Buenos Ayres ranks among the very highest in the service.

The British residents look forward with distrust to any new-comer however intelligent, amiable and experienced, as they feel convinced that none can surpass Mr. Parish in ability and knowledge of the country in the service of British interests.

The Government and natives would also regret the departure of a gentleman whose name is happily associated with the relations of England and B. Ayres. Nor can we feel assured that his successor would be able to continue so desirable a harmony, without the precedents of personal regard.

Finally, we trust the Home Government will take into account the reluctance of the British community, and all classes, for the intended change. We understand a petition is in course of signature among the merchants, to which we feel assured every one will affix his name. We have not heard the name of the new Consul, but learn that he was formerly stationed in Arabia, and is of German descent. As it is possible he may arrive before the address reaches London, there are, unfortunately, some doubts as to the success of the same.

THE FLORIDA AGAIN.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen :—

Another case of naval violation of international law, analogous to that of the Essex, and, if all accounts be true, not unlike that of the Florida, occurred to the American privateer brig General Armstrong, Capt. Reid, in the harbor of Fayal, on the 26th of September, 1814. From Munsell's Chronology, page 376, I make the following brief but significant extract:

"The General Armstrong was attacked in Fayal roads, a neutral port, by the boats of three British ships. They were twice beaten off and several of the boats sunk. Capt. Reid was obliged to scuttle his vessel, and the British commander threatened to burn the town if she was not delivered up. American loss 2 killed, 7 wounded; British loss 120 killed, 130 wounded."

The fact that, with reference to the American brig "the British commander threatened to burn the town if she was not delivered up," is, it seems to me, an item eminently fit for reflection in this moment of excitement and concern about the affair of the Florida.

Hastily, your friend,

BRAZILIAN INVASION.

CAPTURE OF CERRO LARGO.

VIVA Dn. PEDRO II.

ORIENTAL FLAG BURNED.

Yesterday those few individuals who still preserve an interest in the fate of the Banda Oriental were alarmed at the news which the river steamer brought up.

Fifteen hundred Brazilians entered Cerro-Largo seized the place, burned the archives, pulled down the Oriental flag, burnt the flag, then hoisted the Brazilian flag, and shouted Viva Don Pedro II.

As a matter of course, there was the greatest excitement in the neighbourhood of Cerro Largo. Every species of rumour was current, and it was generally believed that the Brazilians were carrying everything before them.

WRECK OF THE "HOMEWARD BOUND"

After leaving Newcastle everything went along prosperously until we arrived off the "pitch" of the Horn, when we encountered a terrific gale from the westward. Ship laboring heavily and making much water — made an attempt to "heave to," but without avail. Ship at this time in a most critical position — canvass all blown away and lying right in the trough of the sea, which caused the cargo to shift, after which, shipped a tremendous sea, which swept away everything on deck save a portion of the after house. Made an attempt to right her by cutting away mainmast, but, although righted somewhat, found the water gaining rapidly on us — pump gear disabled and the sea continually breaking over us, and expecting every moment to founder. The mate, next morning, was found dead in his stateroom, supposed to have died through exhaustion. The carpenter, who is now in Montevideo Hospital, had his thigh broken. Next day the weather began to moderate and gave us an opportunity of arranging the pump gear, but on sounding the well we found the water was gaining rapidly on us; we therefore turned to and lightened ship as well as our exhausted state would allow us. After lightening ship, found she made better weather of it, but, notwithstanding, we were fourteen days and nights continually at the pumps, before we could free her difficulty, all the time at the mercy of the winds.

Sighted the South Shetlands — the cold intense, and all "iced up." Crew exhausted — no hope of ever reaching port again, being at this time surrounded with ice. Orderd a raft to be made in case of going down, since the ice in some parts very nearly cut us through; however, resolved, for the benefit of all concerned, to make for the nearest port the wind would allow us to steer for. In fact, there was no alternative, consequently we shaped our course for Montevideo, where we arrived on Friday last, after a passage of 86 days from the time we were struck by the sea.

P. S.—It is but just to mention that when outside here, about 150 miles to eastward of Cape St. Mary, spoke a Hanoverian schooner (all black) bound from B. Ayres to Rio Janeiro, who refused me a supply of water, although the weather was fine at the time.

APPOINTMENT OF FRANK PARISH, ESQ., CONSUL-GENERAL OF CUBA.

"Foreign Office, Sept. 19

"The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Frank Parish, Esq., now her Majesty's Consul at Buenos Ayres, to be her Majesty's Consul-General in the island of Cuba."

A WORD FOR THE STANDARD.

The Argentine Republic is moving steadily and quietly onward. By the present mail the news is again of peace and progress. We give elsewhere a very excellent review of the events of the fortnight from the packet edition of the Buenos Ayres "Standard," which, we are glad to say, presents itself on this occasion in a suit of new type. The enterprising proprietors of this journal have evidently gone to considerable expense to improve its appearance, and a great and desirable alteration has taken place in the arrangement of the matter. In all other respects the "Standard" is the same, and its remarks will, doubtless, always continue to be characterised by a vigorous independence, a straightforward advocacy of its conscientious opinions, and a sincere desire to promote the permanent prosperity of the adopted country of its well-known editors.—Brazil and River Plate Mail.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

September 23, 1864.

After a fortnight of considerable pressure and anxiety, the money market is gradually regaining a more settled tone. The Bank rate was raised to 9 per cent. on the day of the publication of our last supplement, at which it still remains; but it will be seen by the return herewith that both the bullion and reserve of notes have increased and the chances are favourable to some reduction in the rate. The failure of Leeds Banking Company—the great fall in prices of cotton, and a fear of importers of this article being largely involved—creates uneasiness, and operates injuriously on general business; but in other respects all fears of a monetary panic have passed away. News from America is looked for with much interest, though few people believe in an armistice, and the general impression is that there will be no peace as long as President Lincoln is in power.—Brazil and River Plate Mail.

WOOL MARKET.

From Messrs. W. Greame & Co's Circular

Liverpool, 16th Sept., 1864.

Our intermediate series of public sales of East India Wools which commenced on 8th inst., terminated this evening, the quantity offered in the several brokers' catalogues comprised 17,439 bales of East India and Persian, and we regret to say that the result generally has not been very satisfactory to importer. The following decline must be quoted on last sales rates, viz.—on fine true-bred whites and yellows 4d to 6d per lb, fair to ordinary 2½d to 3½d, low 2d to 3d, finegrey 2d to 2d, low grey and native 1½d to 2d, Persian white and yellow 4d to 5d, brown and fawn 1d to 1½d, grey 1½d to 2d, bastard 2d and 3d; for coloured Persians there was an active competition among the French buyers and the reduction in these descriptions, was consequently less than on other sorts. About 3,140 bales withdrawn for the next series, which will probably take place early in November.

STEAMER PARAGUAY.

TESTIMONIAL TO CAPTAIN PIM.

The saloon passengers of the steamer Paraguay beg to thank Captain Pim and the officers of the ship for their continual and successful efforts to insure their comfort during their voyage from Liverpool to Buenos Ayres.

The Maua Bank has received per Saintonge, a quarter of a million Patacons, $250,000 silver, and yet, notwithstanding this large and unexpected arrival of gold, specie kept very firm to-day. An effort was made to drive patacons up considerably, but it failed, as outsiders gave no orders.

The long looked for news by the packet is at last known, and we are happy to say is by no means as disastrous as was anticipated. The Bank of England rate has been raise to nine per cent, and the failure of the Leeds' Banking Co. has caused a rather uneasy feeling in the market, as to the stability of many joint stock concerns, Private letters received state that things are in a critical state at home, but gold keeps flowing into England by every steamer.

Wool is by no means as dull in European markets as is represented: the circulars we have received state that foreign wools are quoted at previous rates; owing to the manufacturers complaining of a tight money market, they only purchase what they require to keep their manufactories going, and this causes the demand to be rather light.

The Barraca of Cernadas so well known in the South Plaza, is now refitted with new galpones, and belongs to F. Prange & Co. We recommend it to our camp friends.

In the South Plaza there were several sales of good Mesteza wool at $100 per arrobe, and large quantities of grease at $49 per arrobe.

A petition to the Home Government, praying for the non-removal of Mr. Frank Parish from Buenos Ayres, will, we understand, be on the Bolsa to-morrow (Saturday), from half-past one to half-past two o'clock. We are requested to solicit signatures.

Oliden Beef.

This beef took the Gold Medal at the London Exhibition: bales of it are on sale at Ramayon's Store, 35 Paseo Julio, and 97 Calle Peru. Among the kinds most favorably received is fresh mutton with the ribs, which is a most delicate article, and becoming very popular in Rio Janeyro.

It is advisable for merchants and farmers to aid this branch of industry, which promises to attain great importance in the River Plate and Brazil.

The beef may be prepared in the most savory dishes, if put in water the night before for eight or nine hours; and those who try it will admit its superior excellence. 6p. o27.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

P.p. Mauá and Co.

WILLIAM LESLIE

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p ⁄) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Cargo will be received on board of the steamers 48 hours after their arrival, to be delivered in any part of the United Kingdom, or on the Continent, being forwarded by railway and steamer for account of the Company, the bills of lading being signed with these conditions.

As the object of the Company is to extend and facilitate the existing traffic between Europe and the River Plate, the rates of freight will be very moderate.

Specie and Parcels will be received until the day before the steamers leave.

1st Class.....£35.
2nd ,, ...£25.
3rd ,, ...£16.

Return Tickets will be issued for six months at the following rates—

1st Class.....£65.
2nd ,, ...£45.
3rd ,, ...£30.

These boats are excellent opportunities for families visiting Europe, more especially when consisting of Ladies and Children, having large ladies' cabin, and carrying an experienced stewardess.

The Steamer Paraguay will leave this on the 7th of November.

McCHESSNEY,

George Coburn McChessney was drowned in the harbour of Vera Cruz, Mexico, in the year 1856. He had, some years previously, resided in the city of Buenos Ayres. His widow, now Mrs. Catherine Putnam, of New Orleans, Louisiana, declares, in a carefully and elaborately executed power of attorney, to the United States Consul in Buenos Ayres, that her first husband, Mr. McChessney, informed her that her had eight o nine thousand dollars at interest in this city; and she is cognizant of his having, on one occasion, drawn a sum of interest money which had accumulated, amounting to seven hundred and fifty dollars. She does not know who has the money in hand; but she trusts that whoever has it will come forward, in just regard to herself and children, and pay it to the undersigned, who is fully authorized to act in the premises, and who would be glad to receive any information relative the affairs of the deceased

CELEBRATED

WORCHESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

PRONOUNCED BY CONNOISSEURS to be the ONLY GOOD SAUCE and applicable to EVERY VARIETY of DISH

Extract of a LETTER from a MEDICAL GENTLEMAN at Madras to his Brother in WORCESTERSHIRE May, 1851.

"Tell LEA & PERRINS that their SAUCE is highly esteemed in India, and is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome Sauce that is made."

SEASONABLE NOTICE.

EXTENSIVE FRAUDS.

L. AND P. having discovered that several of the Foreign Markets have been supplied with SPURIOUS IMITATIONS of their WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE, the labels of which closely resemble those of the genuine Sauce, and in one or more instances with the names of L. & P. ROBBED; they have deemed it their duty to caution the public, and to request purchasers to see that the names of LEA & PERRINS are upon the "Wrapper, Label, Stopper and Bottle."

L. & P. further give notice that they will proceed against any one who may infringe upon their right, either by manufacturing or vending such imitations, and have instructed their correspondents in various parts of the world, to advise them of such infringements.
